

SEASON 2026: Let It Go!

STAGE PRODUCTIONS

MARJORIE PRIME - March 13, 14, & 15, 2026

In this poignant, futuristic drama, 85-year-old Marjorie receives an AI companion modeled on her late husband to help fill the gaps in her memory. As her family grapples with this new "Prime," the play explores how we hold onto love, identity, and the versions of our past we most want to keep. Thoughtful, tender, and quietly thrilling, Marjorie Prime invites us to consider what remains when memory fades—and what we create to replace it.

Disney's FROZEN, The Broadway Musical - July 17, 18, 19 & 24, 25, 26, 2026

Join Anna and Elsa on an adventure filled with heart, humor, and dazzling stage magic. With Kristoff, Sven, and Olaf at their side, the sisters face fear, courage, and the unbreakable bond that pulls them back to each other. Bursting with unforgettable songs and thrilling theatrical spectacle, Frozen brings its beloved story to life in a way only live theatre can—inviting audiences of all ages to feel the music, the magic, and to be swept on a journey you'll never want to let go!

Bruce the Unicorn: Finding His Song - September 24, 25, & 26, 2026

Join Bruce the Unicorn on a high-energy, interactive musical adventure as he searches for the tune that's truly his. With lively music, playful characters, and plenty of chances for kids to sing, clap, and move along, this joyful show celebrates creativity, confidence, and the magic of finding your own voice. Perfect for school groups and families, Bruce the Unicorn turns every performance into a fun, rhythm-filled journey of self-discovery. (School Shows 9/24 - 9/25, Public Performances 9/26)

Dracula, A Comedy of Terrors - November 20, 21 & 22, 2026

Dracula: Comedy of Terrors sinks its teeth into classic horror and spins it into a fast, frantic, and delightfully absurd farce. This riotous retelling brings out the best of the legend's wit and weirdness, delivering quick-fire jokes, wild characters, and just enough bite to keep the laughs flowing. Packed with theatrical chaos, clever twists, and over-the-top antics, it's more goofy than gory—perfect for audiences who want a bloody good time without taking the Count too seriously. A spirited, sharp-toothed spoof that proves even the world's most infamous vampire isn't safe from a little comedic daylight.
