DRAMA CAMP 2022 hits the Little Red Hen Theatre stage June 13 - 18!

WAKEFIELD, NEB. May 26, 2022 – “Double, double toil and trouble”! The Little Red Hen Theatre is brewing up a batch of creative play for their annual DRAMA CAMP. The experience is an opportunity for students to explore their creativity through theatre games, storytelling, acting, and performance! The camp takes place in the afternoons with a culminating performance on Saturday, June 18. Thanks to a sponsorship from the Wakefield Community Foundation, the camp is free of charge for students. Students can sign up at www.littleredhentheatre.com, or stop by the theatre during business hours.

Students, grouped by age/grade level, work through activities that are specific to their level and ability. Students in Grades K – 3 will be exploring the theme of Familiar Fairy tales, exploring stories like the Three Little pigs, Cinderella, and other favorites. Learning basic drama skills that focus on the use of body, voice, and imagination the students will work together to perform a scripted fairy-tale story of their choosing. Students in Grades 4-8 will be tackling a youth-adapted version of Shakespeare’s Macbeth – a classic tale of witches, mayhem, and mystery. These students will focus on creating characters, improvising, and working as an ensemble.

Scott Mead returns to The Little Red Hen Theatre as the lead teacher for DRAMA CAMP 2022. Scott works extensively in the Omaha Metro Area as a drama specialist frequently working the Rose Children’s Theater and other organizations and teaches theatre full time at Omaha Central High School, for Omaha Public Schools.

The camp will take place in the afternoons during the week, with a performance for friends and family on Saturday, June 18. For more information or to register your young actor for camp, visit www.littleredhentheatre.com, or stop by The Little Red Hen during regular business hours. DRAMA CAMP 2022 is sponsored by The Wakefield Community Foundation, the Dixon and Wayne County Convention & Visitors Bureaus, and the patrons of The Little Red Hen Theatre.
